

AVSA Judging School

If you are planning to attend the Canadian Convention in Calgary, Alberta and would like to take the AVSA Judges School, then don't forget to sign up.

You can audit the course without taking the exam, merely to find out what is involved in the whole process of judging African violets.

Date: Wednesday, May 20, 2009 (One Day Only)
Time: 8:00 am - 5:00 pm (or longer, as required)
Place: Best Western Village Park Inn (Calgary, AB)
1804 Crowchild Trail N.W.
Calgary, Alberta, Canada
Contact: Maida den Oudsten (403) 240-3806
Email: Maida.denOudsten@shaw.ca
Teacher: Paul Kroll

To register for the school, please indicate the following:

- $30.00 Attending the school and writing the exam
- $20.00 Auditing the school (No exam)

I am one of the following:

- First time student – Never attended a school.
- Student Judge – This is my First Renewal.
- Advanced Judge – Renewal.
- Senior Judge – Just taking a refresher course – Auditing / Heckling.
- Master Judge – Taking a trip down memory lane.

The Judges School will be based on the 11th revised edition (2007) of the AVSA Handbook For Growers, Exhibitors, and Judges

Please ensure that you have the latest 2007 edition of this handbook by placing your order with the AVSA office in Beaumont, Texas.

Those who are planning on taking the exam must present their AVSA membership card along with their proof of 3 blue ribbons as clarified on page 88 of the AVSA Handbook.

Please send your cheque made payable to: Stamperde City African Violet Society and your application to:

Maida den Oudsten
4424 - 35 Avenue S.W.
Calgary, Alberta, Canada T3E 1B3