

AVSA Judging School

There will be an AVSA Judging School at the AVSC Convention "Canadian Gold", Friday, April 30, 2010, 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM, in the Boardroom, Sherway Gardens, Toronto for AVSA members wishing to take their first judge's test and for AVSA judges renewing their qualifications. Carolyn Conlin-Lane will be the teacher. Lectures must be attended in order to take the examination. Reservations will be accepted until April 15, 2010. Examination fee is $15.00. All are welcome to audit the course. The fee to audit is $10.00. Proof of AVSA membership, judge's card (if already a judge) and proof of three blue ribbons (signed by Judges Chair or Show Chair) must be presented by those writing the exam. To reserve your space, send your cheque payable to "James C. Toms" to AVSC Convention Treasurer, Jim Toms, 59 Merrygale Crescent, Etobicoke, ON M9B 5N9, Telephone: 416-622-5243, Email: jim.toms@gmail.com. Please include your name, address, telephone, email address. Louise Cheung, the Judging School Chairman will contact you with details later. You may also pay for the school with your Convention registration; see page 26.

The lectures and examination will be based on the AVSA Handbook for Growers, Exhibitors and Judges (required). It costs US $20.00 and can be ordered online at www.avsa.org or write or phone: The African Violet Society of America, Inc., 2375 North Street, Beaumont, TX 77702 Phone: 409-839-4725